The 4th METIS plenary meeting took place from 14th-15th December Paris, France, hosted by partner IRSN and Benjamin Richard.

The first day of the meeting, the WP leaders presented their updates and milestones. The second day was dedicated to technical focus sessions with contributions from Dimitrios Vamvatsikos, Irmela Zentner, Paolo Bazzurro, Thomas Langlade, Abhinav Gupta, Thomas Chartier, Baumont David and Emmanuel Viallet to discuss progress on conditional spectra, uncertainty propagation and Bayesian approaches for fragility analysis and SSCs response, PSHA and ground motion developments for METIS case study, and the development of a methodology for considering aftershocks in seismic PRA.

METIS project also welcomed Abhinav Gupta as a new EAB (External Advisory Board) member.

The consortium had the chance to exchange onsite with members from METIS EAB and End Users Group and enjoyed social dinner at Montparnasse tower.
